

2009-2010 LATIN MINOR
(Minimum of five course credits)

The Latin minor program is designed for students to acquire a reading knowledge of Greek and Roman texts and to introduce them to those cultures and major works of classical literature. Graduates have found their classical-language education particularly useful in a number of professional and business careers.

Students interested in an Independent Major in Classic Civilizations or Classical Studies should contact the chair of the Foreign Languages Department.

Requirements

The following LAT course:

LAT 103: Literature and Civilization _____ 1

AND

Four (4) additional LAT course credits above the 103 level, as specified by the Department of Foreign Languages:

LAT____: _____ _____ 1

LAT____: _____ _____ 1

LAT____: _____ _____ 1

LAT____: _____ _____ 1

Other Considerations in the Minor—Students who minor in a Foreign Language also are eligible for study-abroad grants.