

Wal-Mart has summer field internships available locally and nationwide. The 10-week internship is based in our field store locations. Internship focus is on store operations, human resources and management skill development. Interns may also be involved in the rollout of the company's Personal Sustainability Project. Wal-Mart representatives will be available at the Berea College Career Fair on April 17th. The internships are paid and competitively placed.