AN INTRODUCTION

Berea College, founded in 1855, is a racially integrated, coeducational liberal arts college. Berea’s motto, “God has made of one blood all peoples of the earth” reflects the conviction of Berea founder and ardent abolitionist, John G. Fee. Berea’s spiritual foundations are rooted in the Christian faith, but Berea welcomes people of all faiths, or no faith at all, to study in a diverse campus setting. Berea is committed to providing a high-quality education for high-achieving students with limited financial resources.

Accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Berea seeks to maintain in its program the liberal arts tradition which stresses free inquiry and, in addition to pursuit of knowledge within a chosen academic discipline, provides for a broad and deep general education experience which promotes life-long learning. Berea invites students to a campus which is based on the equality of all people regardless of race, class, age, religion, sexual orientation, or nationality. Berea College expects its students to respect the dignity and rights of all people.

As an important part of campus life, all Berea students participate in a work-learning program. Through this program, the College wishes to demonstrate the dignity of labor, accomplish essential campus work, and provide students with a means of earning wages to assist with their educational and personal expenses. First-year students can expect to earn approximately $2,000 during the nine-month academic year.

Berea College is located in Berea, Kentucky, a small community of approximately 14,000 residents, located 40 miles south of Lexington, Kentucky. The temperature ranges from 15 to 32 degrees Celsius, (60 to 90 degrees Fahrenheit) in the summer and -6 to 4 degrees Celsius (20 to 40 degrees Fahrenheit) in the winter, although at times it gets colder. The campus encompasses 140 rolling acres (57 hectares) with more than 100 buildings, including 15 residence halls, library, and a sports/fitness center. Berea College enrolls approximately 1,600 students, most (70%) are from the southern and central Appalachian regions of the United States; another 22% are from areas of the United States outside of Appalachia; and approximately 8% of our students are international.
The first two years of study include coursework in our General Studies program, which includes an array of required studies in areas such as Mathematics, Social Sciences, Sciences, and Humanities. The final two years are generally devoted to studies in the major area of study. It is expected that all Berea College students will graduate within eight regular terms of attendance (four years).

The scholarship from Berea College only applies while a student is enrolled at Berea. If you plan to continue your studies in the United States after graduation from Berea, you will need to obtain an adjustment to your VISA and arrange for financial aid with the graduate or professional institution that you will be attending. Because of this, international students are not able to study engineering at Berea or participate in the College’s dual degree 3/2 Engineering Program. The Nursing program has higher English proficiency requirements (TOEFL iBT 83, with a 26 on the spoken section). If admitted to Berea with lower English proficiency, students will not be admitted to the major until the required scores are achieved. Students will be given the opportunity to retest, however, students failing to meet the TOEFL iBT requirement by the first day of their third term of enrollment at Berea are ineligible to pursue the Nursing major. If admitted to Berea with lower English proficiency, students will not be admitted to the major until the required scores are achieved.

COSTS

There is no application fee to apply to Berea College.

International students accepted by Berea College are funded for four years of study. We ask that each international student, once offered admission, to pay a one-time enrollment fee of $50 and a $2,200 deposit before coming to Berea to help with costs for medical, dental, emergencies, or other unexpected expenses. Students may apply for an exception to paying the deposit if there are inadequate family finances. The remaining balance of the deposit will be returned upon graduation. Having the deposit while at Berea is essential.

The funding provided by Berea College includes cost of education (the equivalent of tuition) for up to four years. Costs for room and board are also covered completely for the first year.

Because all students at Berea contribute to their educational costs and to the operation of the College via the Labor program, you will have the opportunity each term to contribute to the cost of room and board. The amount of your contribution is based upon your time on campus, or rank (sophomore, junior, senior). As a result, the amount you will pay from your labor earnings toward room and board (term bill) should increase each year. This formula is designed to never exceed your ability to pay and to always leave you with money for discretionary expenses, provided you earn a minimum of $1,000 each summer.

It will take your full cooperation of working the maximum amount of hours in the labor program and during breaks and adopting a frugal life style (which we encourage of all students) in order to have the necessary funds needed. Upon receipt of the required fee and deposit, admitted international students will be promptly issued an I-20. Students are also responsible for all Visa fees, and any other necessary travel expenses to travel to the U.S. We understand that you may not initially have any financial means to pay for all the above expenses, but please do not let this prevent you from applying.

Admission Requirements

ADMISSION PREREQUISITES

Although international enrollment is limited to about 25 new students each fall, Berea College nevertheless seeks to serve students from as many different areas of the world as possible. Successful candidates for admission have a record of outstanding academic achievement and a strong sense of educational purpose. Berea College does not teach English to those who have not yet mastered the language.

International students must have mastered the English language sufficiently to understand and participate in class lectures and discussions, read required texts and other materials, and complete written and other assignments. However, all enrolled international students will be assessed to determine whether they would benefit from an English as a Second Language (ESL) course in the first semester. An additional ESL course may also be required in the second semester for some students. The Nursing program has higher English proficiency requirements (TOEFL iBT 83, with a 26 on the spoken section). If admitted to Berea with lower English proficiency, students will not be admitted to the major until the required scores are achieved. Students will be given the opportunity to retest, however, students failing to meet the TOEFL iBT requirement by the first day of their third term of enrollment at Berea are ineligible to pursue the Nursing major. If admitted to Berea with lower English proficiency, students will not be admitted to the major until the required scores are achieved.

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN A COMPLETED APPLICATION PACKET?

A completed packet contains:

• Berea College International Application for Admission and Scholarship. (completed and signed)
• Personal Essay and Essay Cover Sheet. (signed)
• IELTS, TOEFL, SAT or ACT report (paper copy) is required of all international applicants, including those from English-speaking countries. You must provide a copy of your official test report as part of your complete application packet, even if you have requested an official copy be sent to Berea from the testing center. A printed copy of your online report may be used so that you can submit your completed application by the deadline, but the official report must be submitted before you can be enrolled at Berea College. A minimum TOEFL score of 520 (paper-based test) and 68 (internet-based test) or IELTS score of 6.0 is required of all successful applicants for admission to Berea College. Nearly all admitted students score above 550 on the TOEFL (79 internet-based test or 6.5 on the IELTS) with an average TOEFL score for successful applicants of approximately 600 (100 internet-based test or IELTS average score of 7.0). ACT (minimum: 19) and SAT (minimum: 1330, if taken prior to March 2016, or 980 if taken March 2016 or later) are also accepted in place of the TOEFL or IELTS exam. Due to the length of time required to receive results and the requirement that test results must be submitted as part of the application, prospective international students are strongly encouraged to register for the exam as early as possible. Please note that because of the large volume of international applications we receive, we cannot make exceptions to this requirement or extend the deadline to accommodate late submission of scores.
• Certified copies of all academic records. These must include all secondary school records, university transcripts, matriculation exams, and other leaving exams appropriate to your country. If at all possible, academic records should be translated into English. These copies should be certified by school officials.
• Personal Statement of Financial Circumstances.
• Berea College International Financial Questionnaire (IFQ). (completed and signed)
• International Financial Recommendation Form. This form should be completed by a school administrator, employer, religious leader, or someone who can make a statement about your personal and financial resources, as well as barriers, as they relate to your pursuit of higher education.
• Two Admission Recommendation Forms. Each letter of recommendation must be placed in an individual envelope by the writer of the recommendation and signed by him/her across the sealed flap. Whenever possible you should request that persons writing recommendations on your behalf use the official form(s). We will, however, accept written recommendations, preferably typed, which are not written on, or accompanied by, our official form. Recommendations should be written in English.

11. Is there an application fee? Berea College does not have a fee for submitting an application. If offered admission, then you will be asked to submit a $50 enrollment fee along with a $2,200 deposit. Please do not send money with your application.
